

Anastasija - I Won't Stay

Verse 1

When I look into the mirror
I don't know what I see there again
You kept me too long in your terror
You made me think that I was insane

Chorus

I've been here for you, love
I thought that we could fix those pieces
But I can't take it no more
You have too many different faces

Post-Chorus

I won't stay, staaaayyyy
I will run away, run away
I won't stay, staaaayyyy
I will run away, run away

Verse 2

I lost my right to make free choices
Now the puppet is my second name
In my head I heard too many voices
It's time to finish this cruel game

Chorus

I've been here for you, love

I thought that we could fix those pieces

But I can't take it no more

You have too many different faces

Post-Chorus

I won't stay, staaaayyyy

I will run away, run away

I won't stay, staaaayyyy

I will run away, run away

Bridge

You pushed me into the things that I hated

I didn't realize that life isn't fated

I was too scared to live my life alone

I allowed you to turn me into stone, into stone, into stone, into stone

Post-Chorus

I won't stay, staaaayyyy

I will run away, run away

I won't stay, staaaayyyy

I will run away, run away

Bridge

You pushed me into the things that I hated

I didn't realize that life isn't fated

I was too scared to live my life alone

I allowed you to turn me into stone, into stone, into stone, into stone

Chorus:

I've been here for you, love

I thought that we could fix those pieces

But I can't take it no more

You have too many different faces
