

ANASTASIJA - MY WORLD

CHORUS 1:

And everything that seemed right just suddenly crashed
My world just collapsed; my soul flew away (in the night)
And I tried so hard to forget all the pain
To leave behind my lust for revenge

VERSE 1:

Since I was a child, I dreamt only about
A little love and a light from people around
I was left on the ground, at the back of the yard
And I am falling apart cause I'm alone in the crowd

CHORUS 1:

And everything that seemed right just suddenly crashed
My world just collapsed; my soul flew away (in the night)
And I tried so hard to forget all the pain
To leave behind my lust for revenge

VERSE 2:

Around there was only anger and rage
So I had no chance to run or escape
Then I closed my eyes and wished for a new life
And an angel came down with a healing embrace

CHORUS 2:

And everything that seemed wrong just suddenly shone
My world is restored; my soul is alive
And I am so happy without any pain
Revenge doesn't matter; I'm smiling again

BRIDGE:

The only thing you need to know
Is that miracles happen when you'd never expect
So don't take that last step...

CHORUS 2:

And everything that seemed wrong just suddenly shone

My world is restored; my soul is alive

And I am so happy without any pain

Revenge doesn't matter; I'm smiling again
