

ANASTASIJA - UNFORGIVABLE

VERSE 1:

The sun is rising. Another day begins again
Every day is still the same; I come back and see your face again
I know you're hiding something but you'll never tell me what
And this, my inner feeling, never falls for your lies

PRE-CHORUS:

I know what's running in your mind, what's running in your mind
So leave or change; you must decide, you must decide

CHORUS :

The time is running and nothing is changing now
It's unforgivable, it's unforgivable
You still ignore me like I don't exist
It's unbelievable, it's unbelievable
I stand (I stand) in front of you. You look (you look) into my eyes
It's unforgettable, it's unforgettable
It's like sudden (suddenly) I became (became)
Invisible, invisible

VERSE 2:

The moon comes up and then we know this day is done
You love the night, so when it comes you leave me all the time behind
I know every step you're gonna make; tonight you never hesitate or think twice
And this, my inner feeling, tells me truth I simply cannot deny

PRE-CHORUS:

I know what's running in your mind, what's running in your mind
So leave or change; you must decide, you must decide

CHORUS :

The time is running and nothing is changing now
It's unforgivable, it's unforgivable
You still ignore me like I don't exist
It's unbelievable, it's unbelievable
I stand (I stand) in front of you. You look (you look) into my eyes

It's unforgettable, it's unforgettable
It's like sudden (suddenly) I became (became)
Invisible, invisible

BRIDGE:

Here we go: we fight, fight again we do, but we survive
And that's the truth, but this time it has to change
I can't forgive, I can't forget
It's unforgivable; it's unforgivable, unforgivable, unforgivable

CHORUS :

The time is running and nothing is changing now
It's unforgivable, it's unforgivable
You still ignore me like I don't exist
It's unbelievable, it's unbelievable
I stand (I stand) in front of you. You look (you look) into my eyes
It's unforgettable, it's unforgettable
It's like sudden (suddenly) I became (became)
Invisible, invisible
